

United States District Court
Northern District of California

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Plaintiff,

v.

RICHARD MILLER,

Defendant.

Case No.: CR-13-00028-CW-7 (KAW)

ORDER MODIFYING CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

On January 29, 2013, the Court held a bond hearing regarding the conditions of Defendant Richard Miller's pretrial release. Defendant was present, out of custody, and represented by Darryl Antonio Stallworth. Assistant United States Attorney Kevin Barry represented the Government.

Following a post-bail study, the Court hereby modifies Defendant's conditions of pretrial release to add the following conditions as recommended by Pretrial Services and not objected to by the parties:

1. The defendant shall report to Pretrial Services as directed;
2. The defendant shall not travel outside the Northern and Eastern Districts of California;
3. The defendant shall surrender all passports and visas to Pretrial Services and shall not apply for any passports or other travel documents;
4. The defendant shall not possess any firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon;
5. The defendant shall participate in a mental health assessment and report for suicidality;
